

My Possible Impossible Life

Heart and Mind

Pastor Craig Sweeney | September 3, 2023

Thread: Making the impossible possible begins and ends with TRUST/FAITH.

“Then David confessed to Nathan, ‘I have sinned against the Lord.’ Nathan replied, ‘Yes, but the Lord has forgiven you...’” 2 Samuel 12:13 NLT

This is the moment that the impossible became possible.

Making the Impossible POSSIBLE.

“Have mercy on me, O God, because of your unfailing love. Because of your great compassion, blot out the stain of my sins. Wash me clean from my guilt. Purify me from my sin. For I recognize my rebellion; it haunts me day and night.” Psalm 51:1 - 3 NLT

1. David took ownership of his actions.

2. David asked God for forgiveness.

3. David trusted in the unfailing love of God.

- What do you trust in?

“Against you, and you alone, have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your sight. You will be proved right in what you say, and your judgment against me is just...Purify me from my sins, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.” Psalm 51:4 - 7 NLT

4. David trusted that God wanted more than forgiveness—he wanted restoration.

“Oh, give me back my joy again; you have broken me—now let me rejoice. Don’t keep looking at my sins. Remove the stain of my guilt.”

Psalm 51:8 - 9 NLT

God’s relentless conviction of David’s heart was not to condemn, but to turn his course.

“Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a loyal spirit within me. Do not banish me from your presence, and don’t take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.”

Psalm 51:10-12 NLT

5. David gave his heart to God to do what only God can do—make David new again.

“Then I will teach your ways to rebels, and they will return to you.”

Psalm 51:13 NLT

In humility, I am willing to be on display for others to see your workmanship.

“You do not desire a sacrifice, or I would offer one. You do not want a burnt offering. The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit. You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God.” Psalm 51:16-17 NLT

6. David willingly sacrificed the life he had made, so he could live the life God intended.

Challenge:

- Is this your moment to entrust Him with your heart?
