CHAIR TIME TOOLS

Reflection Questions for Chair Time: think about the following questions and pray through them with Jesus.

- 1) Is there an old habit, mindset, or pattern God may be asking you to release?
- 2) What new work might Jesus be inviting you into right now?
- 3) When will you intentionally schedule time this week to engage with Jesus?

What COULD be Written About You?

Pastor Craig Sweeney | February 1, 2026

Thread: What could be written about you when you make room for the new?

“Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector’s booth. ‘Follow me and be my disciple,’ Jesus said to him. So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.”

Luke 5:27-28 NLT

Following Jesus meant leaving behind Levi’s old life.

- Pursuit of money above all else.

Jesus invited “scum” to follow Him.

- He did NOT invite Levi to remain the same. He invited Levi to be His disciple.
- To follow Jesus is to be transformed as we follow Him.

“Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi’s fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them. But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus’ disciples, ‘Why do you eat and drink with such scum?’”

Luke 5:29-30 NLT

The priests weren’t fires of hope.

Do you know that you are a priest of God?

- What warmth do you radiate?
- How could I radiate the warmth of God throughout my day?

“Jesus answered them, ‘Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.’”

Luke 5:31-32 NLT

Jesus knows.

- His who
- His why

3 Myths Impacting your Faith in Jesus

Myth 1: Christianity is a sinking ship and a dying religion.

Myth 2: Following Jesus doesn’t make any difference in people’s lives.

USA Today Reports:

Myth 3: People do not want to talk about their faith or hear about your faith.

- Three-fourths of people YOU know are willing to attend church, if YOU ask them.

“One day some people said to Jesus, ‘John the Baptist’s disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?’ Jesus responded, ‘Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.’ Then Jesus gave them this illustration: ‘No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn’t even match the old garment. And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the new wine would burst the wineskins, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. New wine must be stored in new wineskins. But no one who drinks the old wine seems to want the new wine. ‘The old is just fine,’ they say.” Luke 5:33-39 NLT

Settling for what is known verses the unknown

This is what Paul is getting at when he writes to the church at Philippi.

“And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.” Philippians 4:8-9 ESV

CHAIR-TIME the ONE thing affecting every other thing.

Challenge:

- Is there an OLD you need to move on from?
- What NEW is God placing in front of you?
- When will you carve out time and effort to engage with the NEW Jesus has for you?

DIGGING DEEPER / TAKING IT HOME

Luke 5:27–39 (NLT)

²⁷Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector's booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. ²⁸So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him. ²⁹Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi's fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them. ³⁰But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus' disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with such scum?” ³¹Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do.

³²I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”

³³One day some people said to Jesus, “John the Baptist's disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?” ³⁴Jesus responded, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. ³⁵But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.” ³⁶Then Jesus gave them this illustration: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn't even match the old garment.
